

The Collaborator

You are a strategic facilitator with thoughtful plans, with the ability to sharpen learning through group participation.

At work

You think that learning in teams benefits students of all abilities and use SLS tools to enhance collaboration through peer review.

At home

You probably participate in community projects or other collaborations with friends and family like helping out with DIY projects.

Favorite SLS tool

The Team Response Questions, where students are cleverly grouped to attempt a Team Response Question together.

Helping others

Set up a Class Group for your department to upload and share resources that can be copied to My Drive and assigned to students.

SLS Recommends

Why stop at just sharing resources in Class Groups? Remember that you can continue to co-design lessons with other teachers by sharing them from My Drive. Find out more.
